Dedication

We, the Staff of the 1956 CHAIN AND ANCHORS, dedicate this volume to our dietitian, Mrs. Katherine W. Mattox, with sincere appreciation for all she has contributed to life at Fairfax Hall during the last eleven years. She will always be loved and remembered by all of us.

We Salute

We, the Student Body, salute our President upon the completion of his 56th year of service in the field of Secondary Education. . . . as a classroom teacher, a public school administrator, and a junior college president.

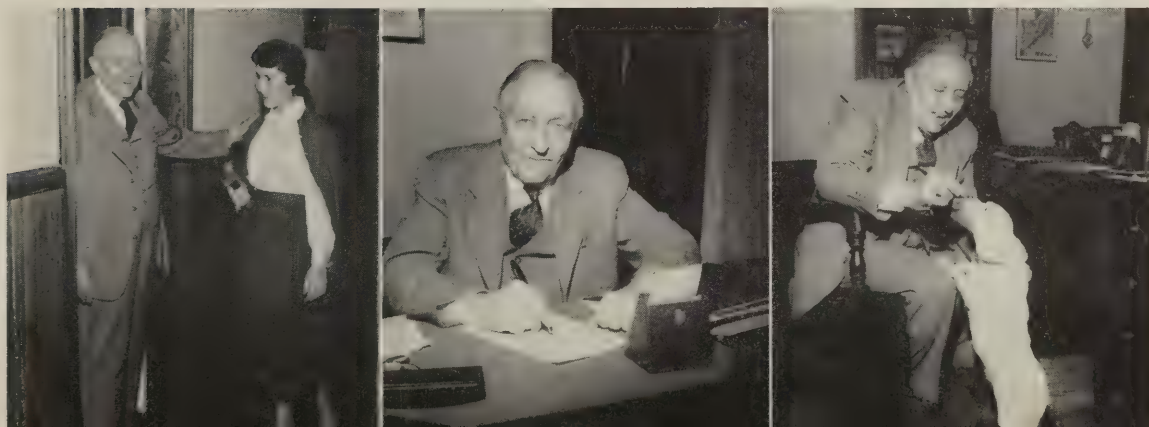

Born at Roseland, in Nelson County, Virginia, August 23, 1877, the son of a Methodist minister, he was educated at Randolph-Macon Academy, Bedford; at Randolph-Macon College, Ashland; and at the University of Virginia.

In the fall of 1900 he began his career in education as a teacher at Ashland High School, later serving at Millersburg Military Academy in Kentucky, and as principal at Suffolk and Martinsville, Virginia, high schools. He was appointed division superintendent of Henry County public schools in 1915 where he quickly won recognition as an outstanding school administrator.

In 1924 he became vice president of Blackstone College and two years later assumed duties as its president, serving with success until June, 1936, when he came to Waynesboro as president of Fairfax Hall. In Waynesboro he has worked for the community in many capacities—in business, in civic affairs, and as a loyal and devoted layman in the Methodist church.

With the realization that we, as students, are very young in heart and experience; and with the knowledge that in age there is peace, and love, and a deeper, calmer faith for us to seek, we express our appreciation to Mr. Gates for his example to us and for his contribution to the education of succeeding classes of Fairfax Hall girls—by his instruction in the classroom, his sportsmanship, his quiet humor, his unfailing good nature and geniality, his spiritual leadership, and his continuing interest in young people.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE COLLEGE SENIOR CLASS

Being on the threshold of graduation after two memorable years at Fairfax Hall, we, the college seniors of 1956, record our Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I

SECTION 1: To Mr. and Mrs. Gates and all the faculty members, we bequeath our best wishes, but above all we leave the hope that they will always remain as kind and understanding as we have known them.

SECTION 2: To Miss Lampton, our adored sponsor, we leave all our love and good wishes for the many great days ahead.

SECTION 3: Finally, we leave Fairfax Hall with a lasting love in our hearts for the school that has meant so much to us in the past two years and that we shall always remember with pride.

ARTICLE II

I, MARGUERITE BATEMAN, do will my ability to just make first period class on time to Pat Rohme and Mary Ellen Schultz, hoping they have as much good luck next year as I have had.

I, KAREN BRUSELL, do will and bequeath to Gretchen Mintz my love for the Deep, Deep South in hopes that some day she will find some good in it; and to Anne Cozart I will my extra-Southern accent hoping that she will learn to pronounce "Derms."

I, SONYA BURDICK, do will and bequeath to Sue Auerhammer my ability to go out for all sports and especially riding; to Nancy Newsome I leave my love for water fights and stealing shoes from the shower; to Sandy Cook my good luck with Fishburne cadets.

I, CAROLYN COLE, do hereby will and bequeath my privileges as a day student to all those underprivileged boarding students. My never-ending want of food goes to Sue Hastings, and my place on the Dean's List goes to Roberta Owens.

I, ANNE CONNAUGHTON, do leave to Sue Auerhammer the trips we took together but keep the memories; to Bert Owens I leave my "Caesar Cut" and now I am leaving.

I, PAT CONNELL, do hereby bequeath my ability to "bop" (Texas style) to each underclassman, whom I dearly love; and to my "little sister" Anne Cozart, I leave "igloo 20"—my room in Senior Dorm—filled with memories and year-round air conditioning.

I, LOUISE DIAZ, do will and bequeath to Dee Ilgunas my lovely stiff way of jitterbugging; to any poor soul who wants it I give my love for Western Civilization and to my little sis, Sandy Cook, as many wonderful memories and happy days as I have spent here at Fairfax.

I, JOAN HAUGABOOK, do will and bequeath my well-developed, good-looking bird legs to my little sis, Sue Hastings; to Beverley Burch I leave my homemaking ways; and to Miss Putz I leave my great appreciation of the literature in the U. Va. "Spectator."

I, SUE HOLMES, do hereby will my short green and red housecoat to Carol Johnson; and to Nina Brusell I leave my ability to Tango.

I, KIKI KOKOLIS, do hereby will and bequeath my ladylike ways to Diane Dale; and to my roommate, Sue Auerhammer, I leave all those jaunts to U. Va., my never ending quest for knowledge and my ability to confuse my nights and days.

I, NANCY NASH, Tar Heel bound and on my way to Carolina, do leave my monstrous closet to the next lucky gal to reach "145"; also my love for the "National Horseman" to Liggett Paxson. Last but not least I turn the ironing board back over to "Lampy."

I, BARBARA SMITH, do will and bequeath to Nina Brusell my most precious possession, my scales, in hopes that she will be as faithful to them as I was; and to my little sister, Penny McKay, I will my vivacious over-exuberant attitude in Speech class.

I, TORIA THOMPSON, do hereby will my ever-worn mocassins to Miss Lampton to aid her attempts to give call downs after 11 p.m. and to Carol Johnson and Liggett Paxson I leave my loyal love for the Blue Grass State in hopes that they'll be able to sing "My Old Kentucky Home" next senior day.

Given under our hand and seal this second day of June, 1956.

PROPHECY OF THE COLLEGE SENIOR CLASS

I'm a newspaper reporter in a fairly large city, and one afternoon last spring I was somewhat shocked when my rather eccentric boss handed me my assignment. It seemed that there was a junior college somewhere in mountainous Virginia in which he, being a one-time affiliate of the University, had a particular interest. He wanted me to track down all the '56 grads and gather a brief report on each.

I felt rather dejected before I even began, but when I learned that there were only thirteen in the class, things didn't appear quite as hopeless as before. When I arrived at Fairfax Hall, Miss Marks, the most efficient secretary, gave me all the information I needed.

After graduation from Dickinson College, Kiki Kokolis was married and is now teaching her two handsome sons how to be strictly Ivy League.

It seems that Louise Diaz has soaked up enough Florida sunshine to last her a good while, as she makes long and frequent visits to Yankeeland.

By this time the vivacious Anne Connaughton has become a top-notch dress designer. She has given up the thought of marriage completely, as she thinks it would be utterly boring.

One of Anne's chic models, Toria Thompson, recently ventured abroad and was met by none other than Jacques Fath. It was reported that she and Jacques made quite a hit together in Gay Paree.

Carolyn Cole has advanced far in the field of journalism. Her latest book entitled, "Man, The Fickle Animal," has been a best-seller and is being recognized as a potential classic.

Sue Holmes is a rising opera celebrity in New York. She has been acclaimed by critics as a most promising soprano star and will appear as "Madame Butterfly" in her next production.

Another celebrity in the public eye is Sonya Burdick. She was recently given an Academy Award for the best non-appearing actress. Miss Burdick owns thirty-nine plaques and forty-seven trophies.

Joan Haugabook, famed woman jockey, became a millionairess over night when she was teamed with the spectacular Nashua last fall at Santa Anita. She now resides alone in her conservative ten-room penthouse.

Marguerite Bateman is living comfortably off the royalties from her latest book, "How to Grow Taller in Ten Easy Lessons." She discloses some very helpful hints in her publication.

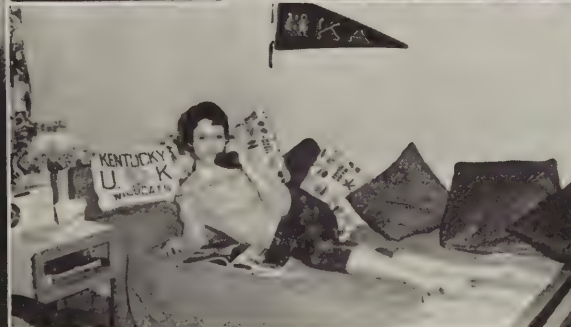

The well-known poetess, Nancy Nash, has revealed to reporters that she and the late Edgar Allan Poe are distantly related, and that she attributes most of her talent to him; she's quite modest about her accomplishments.

Karen Brusell has done well with her peanut farm in Bahia. She ships the new improved nuts daily to all parts of the world, and has sent her high-powered formula to the Department of Agriculture for examination.

Barbara Smith, after receiving her Ph.D. in psychology, returned to Knoxville as the head of the social science department at the University. She strongly advises psychiatric treatment for all forms of frustration.

And finally, Pat Connell made her debut on Broadway recently, replacing Susan Hayward in the leading role of "I'll Cry Tonight." Pat, Miss Hayward's former understudy, feels now that nothing is impossible if one has enough time and patience.

So, for this assignment I was promoted to assistant editor!

(Top to bottom) "Mirror, Mirror, on the wall" . . . "Tennith, anyone?" . . . Kind of wet, ain't it? . . . Well, don't look so forlorn, the South will rise again . . . Memories? . . . THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE HIGH SCHOOL SENIOR CLASS

We, the High School Senior Class of 1956, as we leave Fairfax Hall physically but not in thought, do hereby publish this, our Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I

SECTION 1: To our Alma Mater, Fairfax Hall, we bequeath our devotion and wonderful memories in hopes that every year will be as successful as the ones which we have experienced.

SECTION 2: To Miss Eura Strother, our understanding sponsor, we bequeath our admiration and gratitude for all that she has done for us.

SECTION 3: To Mr. Gates, our wonderful President, we bequeath our appreciation for all the understanding guidance he has given us.

SECTION 4: To the Senior Class of 1957 we bequeath good conduct which has helped us acquire many privileges, and best wishes for a senior year as wonderful as ours has been.

ARTICLE II

- I, BEBE BAILEY, do hereby leave my knowledge in Spanish class to Barbara Baxter.
- I, NANCY BARTLEY, hereby will and bequeath my large bottle of Roux and all make-up utensils to Joanne Sommardahl, in hopes that she will keep the company in business as I did. To Nicki Nixon I leave my saying, "Hun-gaa!"
- I, BECKY BUSBY, being of no mind and all body, do will and bequeath my mirror to Joanne Sommardahl, and my ability to chew gum constantly to Mary Lou Clark.
- I, SARA LI CAPELLA, do hereby will and bequeath to Rosemary Wakefield my Korean dress hoping that she will take proper care . . . and to all the Spanish girls that feeling of happiness which Fairfax has given me.
- I, BETTY CARR, hereby will to my loving sister, Pat, the ability I lack to be on time to breakfast, and to Anne Watson, my love and loyalty to the New York Yankees, and my crying towel to any underclassman unfortunate enough to fall for an S.M.A. cadet!
- I, BARBARA COHEN, being of nothing, hereby leave to Sharon Sisson and Barbara Mogilowitz my love for A.M.A. To Julie Farrar, I leave my ability to get in trouble, and to Dorothy Simons, my love for "Flicker."
- I, BARBARA DEGEN, do hereby will and bequeath to Roberta Karsh my love for the sun in hopes that she doesn't get as burned as I did. To Barbara Mogilowitz I leave one blue gardenia, and to the underclassmen I leave happy memories at Fairfax—four years' worth!
- I, PEGGY DEWEIR, do bequeath my ever-loving loyalty to the Brooklyn Dodgers to Pat Carr in hopes that she will learn to pick a winning team, and my fabulous grades in Biology to Nancy Kerby.
- I, NANCY FEAR, do hereby will and bequeath my huddled position beside the radiators of Senior Hall to anyone who has the misfortune to be as cold-blooded as I am. May it forever keep you warm!
- I, CLEMENTINA FILOSA, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath my ability for gaining weight to Louise Dupuis.
- I, MIMI FINKELSTEIN, do bequeath my nickname of "Slippery" to Diane Petway to carry out next year. To Bobbie Mogilowitz, I leave the traditional name of "S.J.", to Kathy Dick my love for S.M.A., and to Lynnette Holmes my Spanish notes so she won't have to suffer as I have.
- I, ALICE BLAIR GALT, being of feeble mind and sound body, leave my weekly diets to Kathy Dick, and my scientific knowledge to Betty Johnson and Joanne Sommardahl.
- I, CAROL HARRIS, do bequeath to Martha Henna my long hair, and to Mary Lou Clark my enjoyment for reading.
- I, ANN HOWARD, hereby will my heartaches at Fishburne to Barbara Schoepl, and to anyone who thinks four months' social campus is worth a Hop at Fishburne, my best wishes for good luck!
- I, JUDY HUGHES, do hereby leave to Mary Lou Clark room 113, and all the fun we have had in it.
- I, TITO HUMBER, hereby will to all underclassmen as a token of remembrance one oil well and one hundred acres of fertile Texas soil, and to Kathy Dick I leave all my quiet weekends in Roanoke and Lexington.
- I, NANCE-ELLEN HURLEY, do hereby bequeath to anyone who has my problem the nickname which I inherited from Vera Hunt, Class of '55, and also, to any southerner, my warm, warm room!

- I, MIMI IDELSON, being of sound mind, leave my weekly check of $7.00 to Kathy Dick so she can call S.M.A. daily. To Julie Farrar, I leave my pleasant disposition, and my sense of understanding geometry to Mary Miles.
- I, MARY ANNE JOHNSON, do hereby leave my ability to fall off horses to Jocie Brown, and to anyone lucky enough to get them I leave my speechless days in Spanish class.
- I, MARLENE JONCKHEER, do bequeath my eyes to Madeline Berger, my Grandfather's slippers to Cleo Herrera, in hopes that she will be able to walk down the hall at 11:00 quieter than I did, and my ability to speak English to Vilma Giammaria.
- I, MARCIA KIRKPATRICK, do very gratefully bequeath to anyone who can make a profit at Faxette much luck! And to any swimmer interested, the lessons I failed to make up.
- I, ANN KLUGH, do bequeath to Sharon Sisson, my excellent ability to roller skate! My love for riding I leave to Dorothy Simons and Nicki Nixon.
- I, RANNY LEWIS, being of insane mind, do will my ability to stay in the Student Lounge to Sharon Sisson; my carefree nature to Andy Bacon, and my "love" for English literature to the unfortunate class of '57.
- I, MARGIE LOWE, do hereby bequeath room 115, bed number 3 by the door to Julie Farrar. And to Kathy Dick I leave my special knowledge of laughing fits during exam week.
- I, KAY MELLOTT, do hereby bequeath to Barbara Schoepl my love for good ole Fairfax Hall's sports and to Kay Gray my ability to see things from the tip-top.
- I, DELORES MIELKE, do will my riding habit to Dorothy Simons in hopes that she will get more use out of it than I did.
- I, SALLY MURRAY, do hereby will and bequeath my bird legs to any underclassmen worthy of them and to Sue McCaskey I leave my calm temper.
- I, KAREN NORDBERG, do hereby will my ability to get away with murder to Jan Wantland; my excellent athletic inclinations to Pat Terry, and to Nelda Nordberg, I temporarily will my "First best to his second best."
- I, JEANNE PALMER, do hereby will the famous iceberg, room 108, to Dorothy Simons; my fabulous riding ability to Merrell Woodall, and my art of getting up at the 7:45 bell and getting to breakfast on time to anyone else who wants to live dangerously.
- I, KITTY PATRICK, do hereby will and bequeath all the fun and good times I have had this year at Fairfax Hall to any new girl who is coming here for her Senior year. I leave with all my stuffed animals to place them on a new bed in another dorm. And I leave wondering if Andy Bacon will take good care of a couple of Fishburne cadets next year.
- I, JO PRINCE, do hereby will to Mary Pierce Rowan my ability to work algebra; my southern accent to Gay Crutchfield, and my love for Tabor City boys to Barbara Baxter.
- I, ELSA SLIFSTEIN, hereby leave my dancing bones to Barbara Schoepl, and to Olga Downing my love for dancing. To Sheila Macfarlane I leave my love for Cuba.
- I, SARA SLOVIS, do hereby will and bequeath my curtain pulling ability to Jan Wantland; my smoke-filled room to Shirley Carpenter, and to Jackie Toovy a Senior year as wonderful as mine.
- I, LYNDA STEIN, hereby leave my dimples to Barbara Mogilowitz because she wants them and I don't; to Nicki Nixon I leave my "dots" in Spanish class, and to Roberta Karsh I leave all my connections at U.Va. in hopes that she has all the fun I've had.
- I, BETSY STEPHENSON, bequeath my fabulous weekends and Blue Mondays to anyone who has the strength to take them. To Julie Farrar I leave my nickname, "Beaver," and to Kathy Dick I leave my horns in hopes that they won't give her as much trouble as they have caused me!
- I, JANE THORNTON, do hereby will and bequeath to Jaye Abeloff my ability to sleep nights, in hopes that she will get plenty of sleep next year, and to Alice Stevens my skill in getting to "good ole Georgia," in hopes that she will make it down there too! Now I leave with my Fishburne Senior Class Ring to meet Bobby!
- I, BARBARA THRASHER, do will my long hair and fingernails to Jody Ingram in hopes that someday she will have both. To Sue McCaskey I leave my love and luck with Fishburne cadets and to Miss Scott I leave my lovely hours of enjoyment doing shorthand!
- I, JANE TODD, after being at Fairfax for four years, simply leave my sympathy to all those who have the honor of a 10:30 visit from Barbara Mogilowitz trying to find the title of a movie or song popular in 1947. And to my loving sister Ann, my neat short hair.
- I, DIANE VACHERESSE, because of the many various compliments I have received, will my ability to sing in the shower to Jackie Toovy, and my ability to do nothing during study hall to Connie Eldridge with the hopes that they will use these talents to their fullest advantage.

Given under our hand and seal this second day of June, 1956.

HIGH SCHOOL SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

The time is June 3, 1966. The setting is the palatial villa of Elizabeth Page Stephenson on the enchanted island of Jubip. The occasion is the engagement party of Miss Stephenson. The guest list includes the Fairfax Hall Senior Class of 1956.

The first person to arrive for this gala affair was the class president, Sara Slovis, who is president and owner of the Slovis Nylon-Stretch Sox Company. A few minutes later Barbara Degen, the class vice president, stumbled in. She had lost her glasses on the plane and her contact lenses were tucked safely away in her luggage which had been delayed. The next arrival was the class secretary, Bebe Bailey, who is still bubbling with laughter and so pleased that people can understand her Spanish. Next to appear was Jane Todd, the class treasurer, who is a woman of the world but still insists that Virginia is the best state in the Union.

Next to be seen was a very attractive young woman, Marcia Kirkpatrick, now married, but the question everywhere is "Marcia, why are you so gray?" Then came Kay Mellott, who has become quite famous as the discoverer of a new medicine for cancer. Tito Humber, our most wonderful Texan, is still insisting that she will never marry. Ranny Lewis, now a great actress, is working in South America but has flown up to see all of her old school friends.

The Cuban ambassador to the United States, Sara Li Capella, is due at any time. Elsa Slifstein, a very successful dancer and operator of a Spanish night club in New York, will join Sara Li here. Mimi Idelson just arrived with this classic statement, "I just don't understand Geometry." Her very good friend, Mimi Finkelstein, came with her. Mimi is now married and is one of the social leaders of Charleston, West Virginia.

Two happy housewives, Karen Nordberg and Jeanne Palmer, have brought their husbands and children to see all of us. Becky Busby and Jane Thornton are happy living in the "Old South" and raising their families according to the best Southern traditions.

Diane Vacheresse and Mary Anne Johnson are making their contribution to the medical world as nurses. Sally Murray, who traveled with them, is working with the water commission in Pittsburgh. Ann Howard flew in from Europe today and when she saw her old roommate, Barbara Thrasher, now a happy housewife, she just sighed, "Oh, my heart!" Bette Carr, who has been converted into a Southerner and a Dodger fan by her faithful friends, arrived with her old friend, Peggy DeWeir, who is now owner of the Dodger ball club and Yankee Stadium.

Margie Lowe gave up an opportunity to ride at Madison Square Garden just to be with us for the party. Lynda Stein, an international lawyer, and her roommate, Nancy Bartley, who now has her own ceramics studio, were deep in conversation when they were interrupted by a scream from Barbara Cohen, "Hey, Stein, I'm getting married next month!"

Kitty Patrick, who is the wife of an Army Colonel, was overjoyed to see Nancy Fear again. Nancy leads a busy life at her ranch in Arizona. Marlene Jonckheer and her husband, a South American oil tycoon, have just arrived. Ann Klugh gave everyone a shock as she now lives in the north and has lost her southern accent. Delores Mielke has just returned from a trip around the world and stopped off in South Carolina to pick up Jo Prince, who is a school teacher in her home state.

Alice Galt, the wife of a movie producer, sees that her husband makes only the type of movie that she likes. Judy Hughes, the president of the Federation of Woman's Clubs in Vermont, and Clementina Filosa, Editor of the Burlington Free Press, arrived with Nancy Hurley. Nancy and her brother are operating a chain of used-car lots on the Eastern seaboard. Last to arrive was Carol Harris who has taken a great interest in engineering and could hardly talk to us for reading her big books on the subject.

THE LAUREL CHAIN SONG

*Winding slowly o'er the campus
As we bear our laurel chain,
O'er the dear old Fairfax campus,
As we pledge our love again.*

REFRAIN

*Dear old Fairfax, dear old Fairfax,
How our hearts beat high with pride!
Ever shall we stand together,
Fairfax daughters side by side.*

*'Tis a symbol of our faith,
This laurel chain we bear,
And the trust we have in Fairfax;
Oh, our hearts will e'er be here.*

*As the day draws nigh for parting,
And we list to another call,
In our hearts will live the echo,
"Alma Mater, Fairfax Hall."*

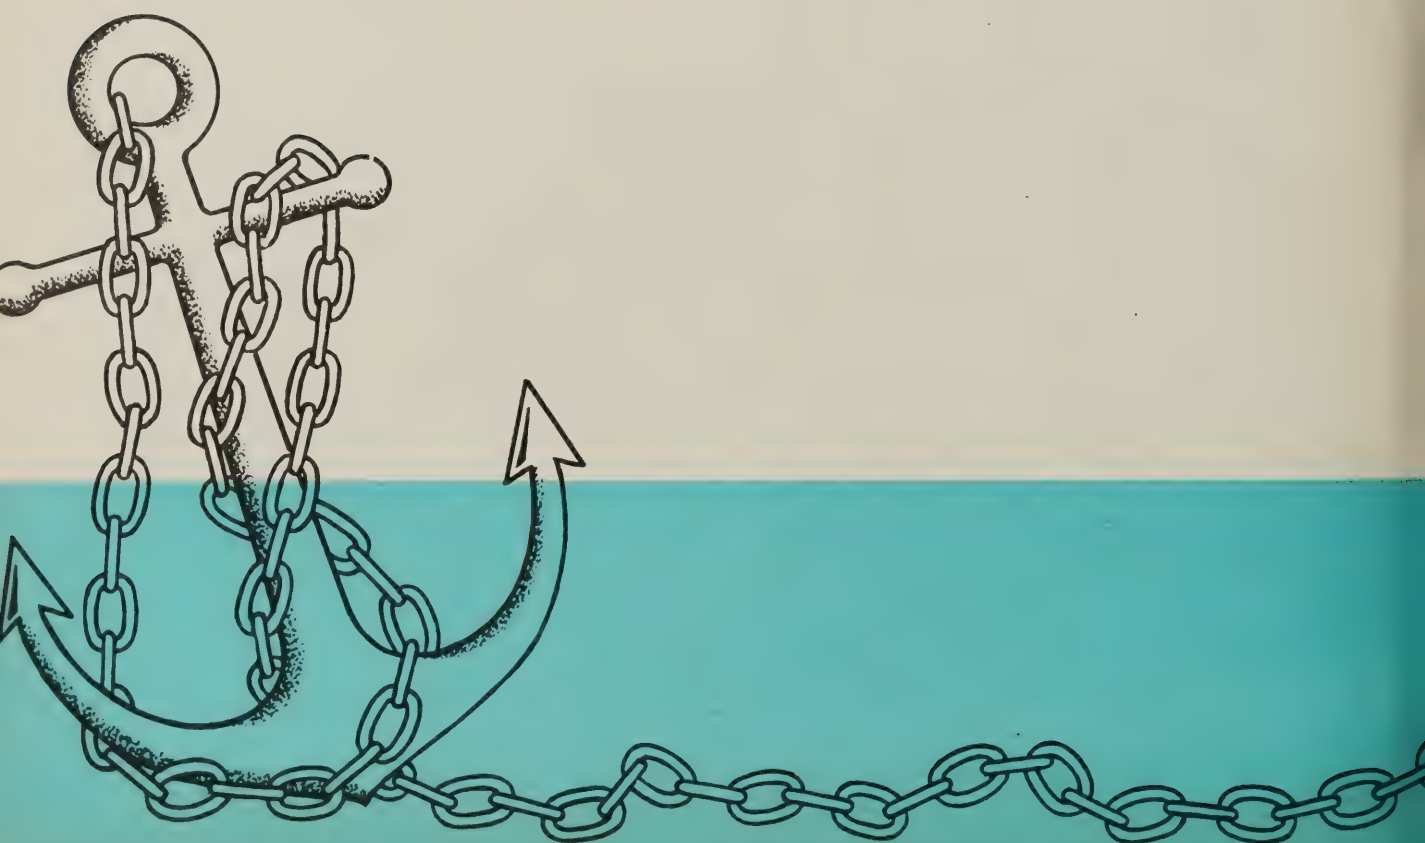

SENIORS:

*We, the Senior Class of Fairfax,
Pass to you this chain of green
As a token of our love
And the happy days we've seen.*

JUNIORS:

*We accept with joyful hearts
The challenge that you give,
And promise we will keep it:
In our hearts 'twill ever live.*

SONGS AND YELLS

Warriors from the halls of Fairfax,
Warriors from the halls of Fairfax,
Come to beat———
We're the best team of all.
Warriors from the halls of Fairfax
Warriors from the halls of Fairfax
Heap big Indian scouts
Gonna beat———

The team was in a huddle
The captain lowered her head,
They all got together
And this is what they said:
"You gotta F-I-G-H-T,
You gotta F-I-G-H-T,
You gotta F-I-G-H-T,
You gotta fight with all your might,
You gotta fight, team, fight!

Folks are dumb where we come from
They ain't had any learning;
Still we'll beat 'em easily
Doing what comes naturally.

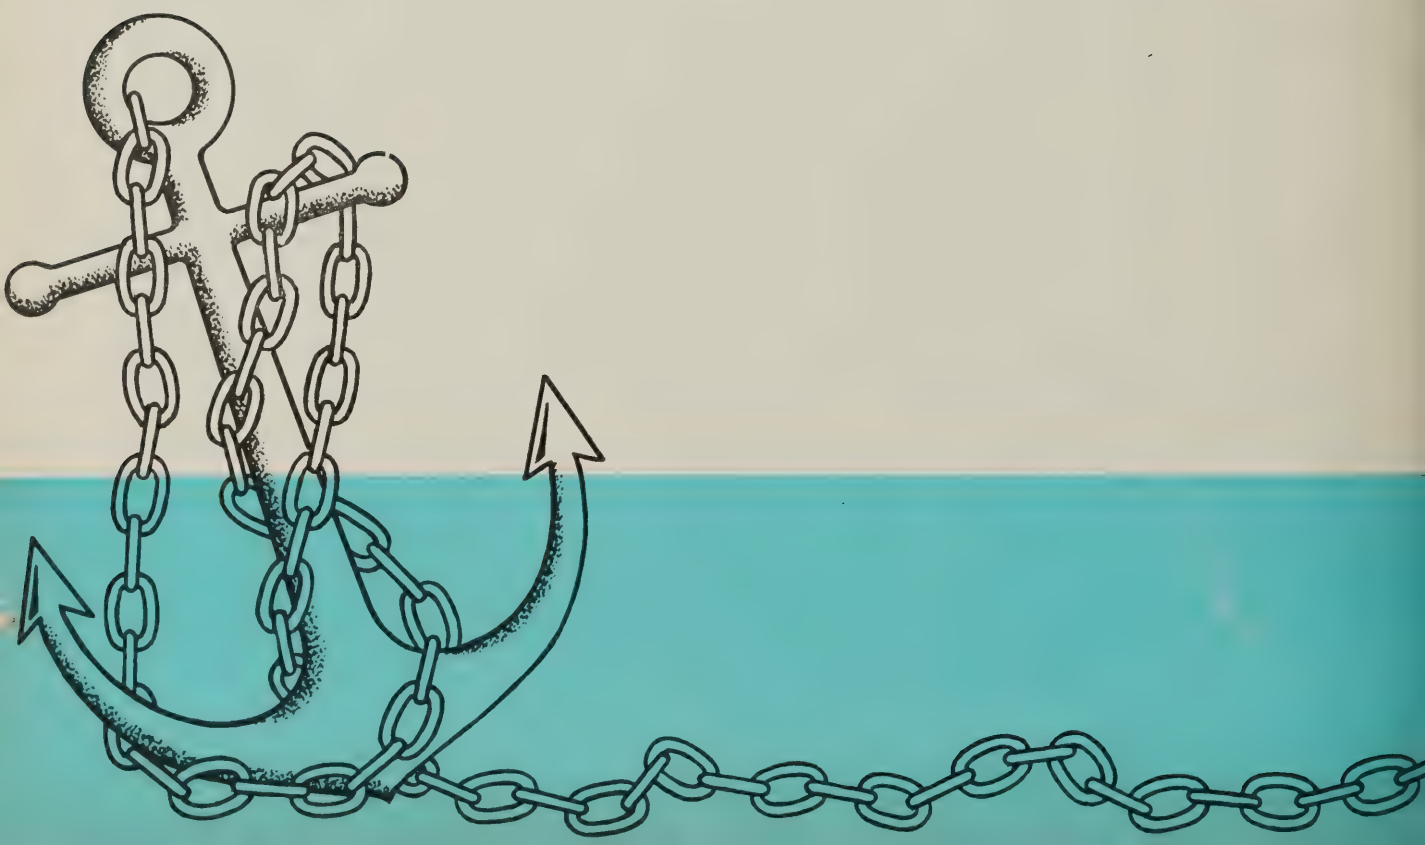

Folks like us don't never fuss
With school and books and learning.
Yet we know how to play hockey
Doing what comes naturally.

You don't have to look in a book to find
That they fear us and it's on their mind
That comes naturally.

The teachers down at Fairfax
They even cheer us on:
They know that we're the bestest
They'll ever hope to find.

So we tell you truthfully
There ain't no denying
We can beat that———
Doing what comes naturally,
A-doing what comes naturally.

THE IMPRINT OF PRIDE

*P*rinting is the great constructive force of the modern civilized world. It plays the indispensable part in the dissemination of news, in the expression and progression of political ideals, in the records and exchange of commerce and industry. It democratizes education, science, art, music—and broadens the scope of everything it touches. ¶To appreciate its high place in the esteem of an enlightened world, PRINTING MUST BE WELL DONE.
